Segment-wise or product-wise performance

Mentioned in section 20 of the notes to the financial statements.

Industry outlook and possible future developments in the industry

The year 2017-18 has been a year of major challenges faced by the spinning industry, almost year long downtrend in Selling prices, coupled with wide fluctuations in cotton prices. Market demand for yarn was also continuously subdued which forced many units to reduce the working days and lower their production for export orders from global retail giants. Quality constraint is observed to be the primary reason for such industry behavior. High trash content, rampant adulteration and abnormal moisture content was observed in Cotton. It could be a threat to the entire textile value chain. This has posed additional challenge to procure cotton at competitive costs therefore Bangladesh still to be depend on the US, West Africa and Australia for supply of quality fibre.

Spinning mills are under continuous stress. Spinning is feeder industry to weaving and knitting sectors, its fortunes mainly depend upon the dynamics of those sectors. This will naturally have a cascading effect on the spinning sector, which feed the weaving and knitting sectors.

The future outlook for cotton spinning industry looks positive. Remunerative prices are expected to improve the cotton supply situation in Bangladesh in the next one year. While domestic demand will be supported by a consumption recovery for the Bangladesh economy, a better economic outlook for most of textile trade partners and restoration of export incentives. Besides, supply coming on-stream will be slower in fiscal 2019, which will aid the operating margins of spinners due to higher pricing flexibility. The strong capacity additions over the past 2-3 years, though, will restrict the margins from breaching the levels attained in fiscal 2019.

Risks and concerns

The Financial Year 2017-18 witnessed high volatility in cotton prices and sluggish demand for yarn products both in domestic and international markets. Cotton prices were uneconomical in relation to market price of yarn. Surplus production, uneconomical exports and reduced demand for medium quality yarn in the domestic market are some of the reasons for the lower performance of the industry. These circumstances have created challenges of shifting towards new value added products, selling at higher price or premium price for the better quality of yarn, better productivity and enhancing marketing strategies for evolution of new markets. Exports at the present juncture at uneconomical prices also aggravated situation due to competition from other developing countries like India, Indonesia, Vietnam and Philippines etc.

Our Company has devised risk management policy which involves identification of the risks associated with the business risks as well as the financial risks, its evaluation, monitoring, reporting and mitigation measures. Audit Committee and the Board of Directors of the Company refined the risk management policy of the Company so that the management controls the risk through properly defined frame work. Heads of departments are responsible for implementation of the risk management system as may be applicable to their respective areas of functioning and report to the Board and the Audit Committee. Details of the risk management mechanism and key risks faced by the Company are enumerated in the risk management policy.

Any change in government policies related to cotton and yarn, higher raw material cost, competition from peer group, power cost, seasonal fluctuations, non-availability of skilled manpower have impact on spinning industry and are perceived as threats.
